examined specific challenges relating to data integration issues across various disciplines. The workshop brought together the community's exclusive 'Data for our Planet' Workshop in Information Partners (ESIP), a long time that envisions a world where Earth observation Group on Earth Observations (GEO), a group and the GEO Ministerial Summit. Hosted by the governments, business leaders, heads of In November 2019, Ministers from 105 member Supporting the GEO Community by versioning are:

The two key recommendations for data best practices for versioning of research data. Tap into the world's data versioning

...