FAIR training resources

Specialist Kate LeMay will discuss these new Advisor Jeremy Kenner and ARDC Research Data data throughout the research lifecycle. NHMRC Expert has several recommendations around management of ARDC.

as well as developing a long term strategy for the ARDC is now hard at work on the operational planning

ALIA Information Online

DATE:

together

addressing the big digital challenges rethinking of spaces and collections to enable technological landscape. Through presentations from

ANU SIS explores the shifting nature of information

9.30 to 4pm

presentations on such topics as:

technologies in teaching, facilitate further professional chains.

the first on what “data” might mean for humanistic and philosophy of data. She is at work on two projects:

with interests in labor, race, feminism, and the history

a history and analysis of SAP’s supply-chain modules, market permits ever-smaller margins, SAP’s supply-

VENUE:

Miriam Posner

Applications for Round 2 2018

open for applications – closing 3 September. Further

ANU

Regulations 2018

Australia. She is the recipient of the 2018 Distinguished

Music and other roles at the National Library of

ANU HASS Impact Framework

and the food will be great too!

SIS Symposium.

More information and registration:

Lecture Theatre 4, CBE Building

10.00am– 11.00am (max)

Wednesday 5 September 2018

for:

the ANU Council etc?...).   The next one is scheduled

Essentials

(APSIG) has now been published on the ALIA website

The July issue of the Asia Pacific Special Interest Group

Don’t forget to register – and

FOR YOUR DIARIES

See in this photo taking a quick break

Headley Bull.