McIntyre Room, Menzies Library

Join ANU Journal Publishing and your colleagues at the 3rd ANU Journals Open Access Symposium.

Prior to the symposium, ANU Libraries will launch a new digital journal publishing platform. Please join us, and our speakers, to celebrate the launch and find out more.

In the afternoon we will have a series of talks followed by an opportunity to meet the presenters. The focus of these presentations is on the publishing process, how it has changed, and where it is going. It will be a great opportunity to discuss with other members of the ANU community.
